

ABE RUEF CONTINUES FIGHT FOR LIBERTY MAN MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR FATALLY SHOT BY PHYSICIAN

EXTRA!

VESSEL ON FIRE OUTSIDE OF GOLDEN GATE

SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 15—THE WIRELESS TELEGRAPH STATION ON THE ARRALONES REPORTS THAT A FOUR-MASTER VESSEL ON FIRE HAS BEEN SIGHTED FROM THOSE ISLANDS, WHICH ARE ABOUT TWENTY-SIX MILES WEST OF THE GOLDEN GATE.

SPECIAL POLICEMAN 'SHOTS UP' RESORT IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15—Demanding that they hold up their hands, S. Rosedale, a special policeman who patrols the Pacific street tenderloin with a heavy club in one hand and a revolver in the other, made his way into the Kelly saloon at 513 Pacific street at 3 o'clock this morning and clubbed the habitués of the resort and fired into the air.

There were twelve women and four men in the place at the time and several were injured as a result of Rosedale's debauch.

A mammoth mirror worth several hundred dollars was totally destroyed by the bullets from the drunken officer's gun.

Panic reigned among the patrons of the place who rushed out into the street. Officers Doran and Sullivan were attracted by the shots and coming upon the scene placed Rosedale under arrest.

The injured were removed to the Central Emergency Hospital for treatment. None of them are in danger.

DISCOVERED BY DEATH

LOS ANGELES, March 15—The death of Frank C. Beamer who was struck and killed yesterday by the automobile of R. H. Ingram, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific, revealed his presence in this city to his daughter, Miss Jane Beamer, of Long Beach, who had known nothing of her father's whereabouts for twenty years.

Simultaneously Mrs. R. E. Blair, mother of Miss Beamer and former wife of the man who was killed, learned for the first time that Beamer had married again and had been living but a few miles distant for many years. Mrs. Blair and Miss Beamer learned of Beamer's death through a newspaper account of the accident. They investigated and viewed the body at the morgue.

Miss Beamer's recognition of the body of her father whom she had not seen since she was a child was pathetic. She had often passed his place of business in Los Angeles and saw her father there, but failed to recognize him.

The identification of Beamer by his daughter and former wife brought to a second surprise Beamer's second wife, who is now left a widow, knowing nothing of her husband's former marriage or of the fact that he had a daughter and was greatly surprised when told of it.

The coroner's jury found Beamer's death due to an unavoidable accident.

Shooting at what he took for a burglar breaking into the rear of his residence at Eighteenth and Grove streets, Dr. C. H. Wilder this morning fatally wounded Charles Johnson, a ship carpenter, from the Boole & Son yards. Johnson died at the Receiving Hospital shortly before noon.

PHOTOGRAPH IS OF DR. C. H. WILDER.

Persistent attempts on the part of Charles J. Johnson, a laborer employed at the Boole & Son shipyard, to force an entrance into the home of Dr. C. H. Wilder, 1404 Grove street, at 4 o'clock this morning resulted in the death of the trespasser at the hands of the physician the man passing away at 11 o'clock this morning at the Receiving Hospital.

MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR.
Johnson, who was intoxicated was mistaken for a burglar and all of his acts before the fatal shot was fired tended to confirm this belief. He made three attempts to pry open windows and two attempts to force the back door before Dr. Wilder obtained a weapon—an old fashioned Springfield rifle—and repelled the intruder with a rifle ball.

The aim of the doctor was directed by the shadow of the supposed burglar as it fell on the window shade. The bullet took effect in the abdomen. Johnson after he was wounded fell to the ground and crawled to the side walk where he was found by a posse of police who responded to a telephonic call for help.

PISTOL IN FACE.
Dr. Wilder states that in the last few months his residence has been tenanted by burglars and that he had been subjected to the unpleasant experience of having a revolver thrust in his face while the thief proceeded to search for valuables. The episode of this morning vividly recalled his former experiences and he resolved to take no chances.

Johnson, who did not speak good English, stated that he was exceedingly drunk and that he had mistaken the house of Dr. Wilder for his own. He resides with N. Nelson at 1420 Eleventh street in West Oakland. The place he attempted to enter is many blocks from where he lives.

The fact that he attempted to pry two different windows open and also sought an entrance through the back door, are regarded as circumstances indicating that the man might have been attempting to gain access to the home of the physician for a felonious purpose.

TELEPHONED POLICE.
Immediately after Dr. Wilder had shot Johnson he telephoned the police, that he had wounded a burglar. Captain of Police Lynch Sergeant Brown

CONSOLIDATION DEFEATED BY VOTE GIVEN YESTERDAY Plans for a City and County of Oakland Are Knocked Out for the Present.

With the defeat of the annexation project yesterday the plans of Mayor Mott and the city administration, to eventually have a city and county of Oakland instead of a separate city and county government received a crushing blow. The annexation of Piedmont Fruitvale and the other neighboring towns was to be the first step in a grand plan to have a city and county of Oakland. Now that annexation is buried there is no telling just when the scheme to consolidate the city and county government will again be taken up.

If the annexation project had carried Mayor Mott intended to petition the state legislature to amend the constitution so that cities of more than 100,000 population could consolidate and have city and county governments. Under the present state constitution this would be impossible.

It is possible that the project of establishing a city and county government for Oakland will now be delayed until Berkeley and Alameda would be willing to join in such a movement.

The commercial bodies of Oakland, the Merchants' Exchange and the Chamber of Commerce were deeply interested in the annexation project and what it implied. The politicians of the city and also of the county will probably view the defeat of the annexation project with a considerable degree of equanimity.

In regard to the election Mayor Mott said: "I had been led to believe that the annexation measure would carry plenty to do in completing the improvement and betterment already projected. At another time, more auspicious than the present, the question of annexation can be revived."

ARGUMENTS MADE; DECISION OF SUPREME COURT NOW AWAITED Fight Is Continued on the Second Application for Habeas Corpus Writ.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15—Abe Ruef today continued his technical fight in the Supreme Court, his second application for writ of habeas corpus being before that tribunal. Ruef contended in his application that he is being held in unlawful custody by Elisor Biggy and that he should be remanded to the sheriff instead.

Assistant District Attorney Heney replied that Biggy was appointed elisor by the court to act impartially and with promptness in bringing Ruef into court and that this order is still in effect.

After considerable argument, the matter was submitted, and it is not known when the decision will be handed down.

Court convened at 10 45 o'clock. Seven justices sat in banc. Francis J. Heney, District Attorney Langdon and W. H. Cobb represented the prosecution, while S. M. Shorrtridge, Frank Murphy and Henry Ach were present in behalf of the petitioner.

RUEF APPEARS TO BE BORED.
Ruef was brought into court by Elisor Biggy and Detective Burns. He was neatly dressed and appeared to be bored, although he took an active interest in the proceedings. Attorney Heney read the appointment of W. J. Biggy as elisor, by Superior Judge F. H. Dunne and argued that under this appointment the latter was the lawful custodian of Ruef until another order was made. He offered several authorities in substantiation of his argument.

Attorney Murphy replied that Biggy was appointed solely for the purpose of arresting Ruef and not to retain him in custody. He also declared that no order of Judge Dunne had been made to this effect.

Murphy further contended that Ruef should be kept in the jail and that any accused man might demand the same course and that under such a concession of the law, many abuses might arise.

Attorney Heney denied that Ruef was being held in restraint from his friends and advisors as had been alleged and declared that Biggy had a right to select any place to retain his prisoner.

Justice McFarland, said the construction might mean the abuse of the law and would make prisoners slaves of the whims of their guards.

Samuel Shorrtridge closed the argument and asserted that there was no law allowing a prisoner to be held in any other place than the regularly constituted jail. He presented several authorities in substantiation of his argument.

The matter was then submitted and Ruef was left in the custody of Elisor Biggy.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15—The four guards detailed to assist Elisor Biggy in guarding Abraham Ruef have been given quarters in the room adjoining that which the prisoner occupies. Heretofore the management of the hotel has found it impossible to concentrate Biggy's forces. This morning the room was vacated and Biggy's men at once took it. This will permit all four to be within calling distance. Two are on watch all the time, besides the elisor, who sleeps in the same room with his charge.

Supreme Court Considers Ruef's Request for Writ

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 15—The State Supreme Court today heard arguments on the appeal of Abraham Ruef for an order removing him from the custody of Elisor Biggy, and placing him in charge of the Sheriff.

Biggy came to court with his prisoner, ready to contest the attack that had been made with his authority. In a long return the order of appointment, the instructions of the court and the writ of attachment were presented to the court. They were read at length by Assistant District Attorney Heney and supplemented by A. Traverser in

DELMAS SPRINGS BIG SURPRISE BY REFUSAL TO CROSS-EXAMINE ANY OF STATE'S FIVE ALIENISTS

Under Guidance of District Attorney Jerome These Experts All Declare That Thaw Was Sane When He Shot White--Has Changed His Tactics About Proving That Prisoner Was Incurably Insane--Sticking to Straight Murder Charge.

NEW YORK, March 15.—At the opening of the Thaw trial today District Attorney Jerome consented to a request from Mr. Delmas of the defense that he be allowed to defer the cross-examination of Dr. August Flint, who in an answer to the two hypothetical questions yesterday declared his opinion that Thaw at the time he shot and killed Stanford White was sane and knew the nature and quality of his act.

After Dr. Hirsch had qualified himself by stating that his medical education had been in the State of New York, District Attorney Jerome asked him:

"The person described in the hypothetical question of the defense suffering from such mental derangement that he did not know the nature of his act or that the act was a crime, was the reply."

A "BRAIN STORM."
"Now, doctor," said Mr. Jerome, "what is a brain storm?"

"There is no such thing as a brain storm known among scientific men," came the response.

When Dr. Wagner was upon the witness stand he was asked by Mr. Jerome a question which was a recognized text book on insanity. Mr. Jerome called this case to Dr. Hirsch's attention.

Mr. Delmas objected on the ground that it was a collateral issue. Justice Fitzgerald overruled the objection and Dr. Hirsch said the case cited was no more similar to the Thaw affair than a case of smallpox resembles a broken leg.

"What is all?" said Mr. Jerome. "No questions, doctor; you may step aside," said Mr. Delmas.

Dr. William B. Pritchard followed Dr. Hirsch upon the stand. His responses to the two hypothetical questions were identical with those of Dr. Hirsch.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION.
Mr. Delmas waived Dr. Pritchard aside when he was turned over by the District Attorney for cross-examination.

It was then announced from the defendant's counsel table that there would be no cross-examination of the experts for the State.

Dr. Albert W. Peritz, the next expert, was upon the stand but a few moments. He, answered the two questions as the others had done and was dismissed by Mr. Delmas.

Dr. A. R. Diefendorf, of the State Hospital at Middletown, Conn., was the fifth expert to testify, and his opinion was that the prisoner was sane when he killed White to ask Dr. Diefendorf a question as to certain statements made in one of his works.

Mr. Jerome objected and Mr. Delmas withdrew the question.

Dr. Diefendorf was excused.

Dr. Mabon, the last of the six experts, was called. Dr. Mabon was of the same mind as the five doctors who preceded him on the stand.

PHYSICIANS DIFFER.
When Mr. Jerome had concluded his direct examination of Dr. Mabon, who is superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane on Ward Island, Mr. Hartbridge of Thaw's counsel, said he had a few questions to put to him.

"Is it not true," he asked, "that physicians often differ as to the form of insanity from which a patient may be suffering?"

District Attorney Jerome objected, but was overruled.

"They do," admitted Dr. Mabon.

Mr. Hartbridge said that many things which are in evidence as to the insanity of Thaw were framed by the district attorney and undertook to supply some of them.

LUNCHEON RECESS.
Mr. Jerome objected, especially to the reference to the "Mink Eastman gang," and said that was not a fact correctly stated.

When court reconvened after the luncheon recess Mr. Hartbridge said he would withdraw the question asked Dr. Mabon.

"Then there is no cross-examination," queried Mr. Jerome.

"None," said Mr. Hartbridge.

"In that case, your honor," said Mr. Jerome to Justice Fitzgerald, "will you come back to the question as to whether or not Abraham Hummel was acting as attorney for Evelyn Nesbit at the time he was testifying about yesterday?"

"Call Evelyn Nesbit Thaw," commented Mr. Delmas.

Thaw soon took her place in the chair.

Mr. Delmas called Mrs. Thaw's attention to the fact that she had already testified as to visiting Hummel's office with Stanford White.

"Did you," he said, "then and there call upon him in a professional capacity with a view to having his legal advice as a counselor at law?"

District Attorney Jerome promptly objected upon the ground that the witness had already been fully examined upon the subject.

Justice Fitzgerald overruled the objection and Mrs. Thaw said:

"I did."

Mrs. Thaw thereupon left the stand.

Justice Fitzgerald further ruled that the defense could not now place the professional privilege in bar of Hummel's testimony, for the privilege was automatically waived when young Mrs. Thaw herself took the stand and told of the occurrence in Hummel's office.

DELMAS SPRINGS SURPRISE.
NEW YORK, March 15.—Delphin M. Delmas, leading counsel for Harry K. Thaw, sprang a decided surprise upon District Attorney Jerome today by announcing that he would not cross-examine any of the experts for the State.

Mr. Jerome during the morning put five alienists upon the stand, one after another, and claiming their familiarity with the hypothetical question put to the experts for the defense and also to the experts for the defense and also to the experts for the defense.

Mr. Jerome's 15,000 word exposition of the case at the time of the killing, came at the time of the killing.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
HUNDREDS BUY FINE PIANOS

Eastern Piano Manufacturers Make Liberal Advertising Allowance to California Buyers.

The tremendous piano business of the Eliters Music Company has been built up by supplying the very highest grade pianos at the lowest possible prices. This charge "as much as the traffic will bear."

Buying pianos in tremendous quantities, shipping practically in trainloads, employing every modern device for economy, they have been able to furnish pianos at from one-fourth to one-half less than the regular market price.

Eliters Music Company have started an Eliters Music Campaign in which the money advertising campaign in which the money usually paid to secure the endorsement of high-priced artists now goes directly to the buyer of the piano.

SOME ADVERTISING FACTS.
There is not a doubt that there are pianos being sold in Oakland and San Francisco today which could be easily sold for $100 to $200 less if the manufacturer were not paying almost fabulous sums to great pianists to play and endorse their pianos, and to destroy the heavy expenses of concert tours in which their pianos are used.

Eliters Music Company, always alert to get every possible benefit for their patrons, have induced some well-known Eastern manufacturers to unite with them in advertising their pianos on the condition that the manufacturer will allow a lower price to be made for this purpose should go directly to the piano buyer himself.

These manufacturers have agreed to the sale of $18 high-class instruments. They well realize that no advertisement could be more powerful in its effect than the placing of these six fine pianos in the homes where they will be used and talked about and admired. Through the courtesy of the manufacturers, the lowest possible price has been established. In addition to this, every buyer receives a four months' course of music lessons FREE.

When you can turn your own teacher, or your own child, into a pianist, whichever you prefer, and in addition to this, the necessary "WITHOUT COST."

SPLendid PIANOS.
To make this advertising campaign pay these six instruments must be the means of selling at least five times as many pianos of these makes during the next year. It follows that every one of them must be a choice instrument in itself that will give the greatest satisfaction to the user and that will cause him to advertise it for us.

No finer selection of high-grade instruments could be offered to the public than these six ELITERS PIANOS. They are the pianos of the wealthiest people of New York and New England, and it is conceded, their pianos known to the trade. The DICKER & SONS has now been in use for over 30 years and has steadily grown in favor. There are thousands of KIMBALLS on this coast giving the best of service. The beautiful toned HOBART M. CABLE, the brilliant toned CLAYTON, the SCOTT, the BAILEY BROTHERS, the BAILEY and the SMITH & HARNES—every one of these pianos with a high reputation will be included in this sale.

DON'T DELAY.
Remember that this novel sale will be closed in less than 3 weeks and that almost half of the pianos have already been taken. No such opportunity has ever before been offered to great piano buyers. It will pay you to visit one of our stores and see what remarkable values are now obtainable. ELITERS MUSIC COMPANY'S other piano stores in San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, and Sonoma counties. The comparison is the best advertisement we have ever had. Pianos which have heretofore been sold at $2,000 and $3,000 will now be sold for as little as $1,000. All $1,500 and $2,000 pianos are now reduced to $1,200, $1,500 and $2,000. We offer in this sale a choice medium-sized, full seven and one-third octave, highest grade, artistic piano, one which never heretofore has been sold for less than $2,500 by the house which previously had the agency for $2,400 and $2,500; and a player, yet very desirable style, now goes for $1,500.

MAIL ORDERS.
Recently come to Oakland and San Francisco have ordered pianos by mail. In every instance we have more than pleased such buyers, as we take particular pains in choosing pianos for those who cannot make their own selections. We ship our pianos to any part of the West, freight prepaid, subject to examination. This gives people at a distance from the city the same opportunity to get a good piano as the residents of Oakland or San Francisco. You see and try the piano before buying.

Rivers in the East Are Beginning to Show Signs of Uneasiness.

PITTSBURGH, March 15.—The crest of the flood passed this city at 8 a. m. At 8 a. m. the rivers began to show signs of falling. No immediate danger is apparent at this hour. The rivers are rushing out at a terrific rate and at this point fears are considerably alleviated.

Pittsburghers today were amazed at the immensity of the flood in the Monongahela, Allegheny and Ohio rivers, which has submerged ten square miles in the downtown section of the city. After reaching the highest stage ever known, 37 feet, the water slowly receded.

CHANGED TACTICS.
Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton, who has been summoned as a witness, had a long conference with Mr. Delmas this morning. When Mr. Jerome purposed calling Dr. Hamilton he seemed intent upon proving that Thaw suffered from an insurable form of insanity, but he has since switched to a policy of pressing the trial to a conclusion upon the indictment for murder in the first degree.

HUMMEL SUMMONED.
Mr. Jerome then summoned Mr. Hummel to the stand.

"When Evelyn Nesbit called upon you at your office did she not tell you that Thaw had begged her time and again to sign and swear to documents he had prepared charging Stanford White with her betrayal and that when she had told Thaw it was not so, he beat her?" asked Mr. Jerome.

Mr. Delmas objected to the question. Justice Fitzgerald overruled the objection.

"Yes," said Hummel.

"Did you thereafter and in the presence of Evelyn Nesbit dictate to a stenographer?"

Mr. Delmas objected on the ground that the question was irrelevant, already sworn to by Miss Nesbit.

Mr. Jerome said he remembered that Mrs. Thaw had sworn that she heard the dictation and withdrew the question.

"Can you recall what was dictated?" asked Mr. Jerome.

"I can."

"Was the dictation subsequently reduced to writing?"

"Yes."

DELMAS PROTESTS.
Mr. Delmas protested that the quick answers of the witness did not permit him to object. He asked that the last question be stricken out.

PLAN HARBOR LEAGUE NOW

Committee of Progress Decides to Take Up Question for Civic Betterment.

At a meeting of the Progress Club last evening a letter was received from the Y. W. C. A. endorsing sixteen tickets for the Novelty Theater benefit which is to be given for the fund with which it is proposed to purchase a home for working girls. The donors asked the Progress Club to boost the benefit in all ways possible, and also stating that tickets are on sale at certain stores in the central part of the city. The sixteen tickets which had been forwarded were sold by Chairman Webster in less than one minute, to the members of the committee.

W. P. Austin, one of the boosters, sent an order on the Austin Furniture Company to the Committee of Three. He said the company was endeavoring to raise the fund for $50 worth of merchandise free of charge which is to be used at any time convenient for the work.

OUTSIDE OFFERS

Evidently the committee of Progress and its good work has been heard of in Los Angeles for a communication was received from the Grizzly Bear Publishing Company of that city. This company is composed of Native Sons and they publish a monthly magazine under the name of the Grizzly Bear. The letter states they will hold space for the committee in the initial issue of their magazine which is to come out soon. They will gladly print any unsolicited matter concerning the progress and prosperity of Oakland and will also be pleased to receive photographs for which they will engrave at their own expense. The matter was referred to the organizing committee with power to act.

HARBOR LEAGUE

Chairman N. B. Grunsfelder of the Harbor Committee suggested the formation of an Oakland Harbor League for the preservation of the Oakland Harbor for Oakland. He said the men who signed the recent petition which was sent to the Legislature in regard to the Harbor Commission Bill would readily join the league. There were two hundred and fifty men who signed this petition. This would make a good start. This was referred to the Harbor Committee with instructions to take steps towards the organization of the league.

THANK OFFICIALS

The following resolution was submitted by N. B. Grunsfelder and adopted. Owing to the energetic efforts of Mayor F. K. Mott and City Attorney J. E. McElroy, and the work of the Special Committee of Progress, the legislative action on the Oakland Water Front Harbor bill has been postponed. Resolved, That a vote of thanks be VALUABLE FORMULA.

A noted authority on diseases of the throat and lungs, who established a camp for consumptives in the pine woods of Maine, and whose remarkable cures there have attracted great attention from the medical world, says that his entire treatment consisted of fresh air, nourishing food and the Pure Virgin Oil of the White Pine Trees mixed with Whisky and Glycerine, in the following proportions:
Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) 1/2 oz.
Glycerine 2 "
Good Whisky 8 "
Used in teaspoonful doses every four hours.

It is claimed that the above mixture will heal and strengthen the lungs, break up a cold in twenty-four hours, and cure any cough that is curable.

The ingredients can be secured from any good prescription drug-gist at small cost and can be easily mixed in your own home.

Inquiry at the prescription department of a leading local pharmacy elicited the information that Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) is put up only in half-ounce vials for dispensing. Each vial is securely sealed in a round wooden case with engraved wrapper with the name—Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906, serial number 451, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O.—Plainly printed thereon. Resolved That the thanks be extended to the press of Oakland.

Resolved That the thanks of this committee be extended to W. R. George for his excellent address.

Resolved That the thanks of this committee be extended to the Merchants Exchange for the use of their room for this meeting.

Resolved That the secretary be ordered to send each of above parties copy of resolution.

REGARING STREETS.

The following resolution which is self-explanatory, was submitted by J. C. Arnold.

WAS ONLY TO SAY GOOD-BYE

Interstate Commerce Commission Explain Their Visit to the President.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The President is still without word from the railway officials who, it is said, are coming to Washington at J. P. Morgan's suggestion, to talk about the relations between the railroads and the Government.

Early visitors at the White House today were Commissioners Harlan and Prouty of the Interstate Commerce Commission, who are about to start for Chicago to hear additional testimony in the case of the city of Spokane against various Western railroads, the complaint in which involves alleged violation of an important provision of the amended interstate commerce act.

ONLY TO SAY GOODBYE.

No information was obtainable at the executive offices as to the reasons for the call. The commissioners themselves said their visit was for the purpose of saying good bye to the President. Recently Commissioner Harlan advanced the opinion that the Interstate Commerce Commission has result in dealing with State laws which traffic today he said that he had nothing to add to this opinion.

YEARLY DEBATE AT ST. MARY'S

Literary Students Down Their Ancient Rivals of Scientific Course.

St. Mary's College was the scene of much oratorical action last evening when the rival societies, A. P. G. U. and S. S. S., representing the literary and scientific courses met in their annual intersociety debate. The decision of the judges in favor of A. P. G. U., upholding the negative of the question of public utilities is conducive to the best interests of the commonwealth was received with many cheers.

The program was as follows: Overture "Sturdy Foes Are We" college orchestra subject of debate. Resolved, That government ownership of public utilities is conducive to the best interests of the commonwealth. Chairman Peter J. MacCormick, affirmative—Edward J. Rogers, W. Otto Snider and Harry A. Davis negative—Richard J. Doran, Benjamin B. Jones and Edward J. Barry judges of the debate—James A. Grant, Theodore Bonnet and Rev. William E. Sullivan. Interlude. Hours of Suspense or chrestia solo. Oh! Happy Were We When George W. Foulney, quartet. "Those Pleasant Memories" William J. Thompson, William J. O'Connor, Reginald G. Gahard, Stephen J. Field, selection orchestra.

A large audience was very evenly divided in its support and the several speakers showed the possession of experienced debaters. The audience was especially pleased with the team work of the opposing sides. Messrs. Barry, Doran and Jones, representing A. P. G. U. proved particularly strong in argument and their logical conclusions proved a snare to their scientific brothers.

RAJAH SILK

The Queen of Fancy Textiles

Since Aristotle first mentioned Silks nearly four centuries before the Christian era, to the time of Roosevelt I, there has never been a more strikingly effective weaving of the product of the silkworm than the Rajah silk.

The most prominent feature of this beautiful fabric is its finish, or apparant lack of finish, showing what appear to be pieces of the original cocoon distributed freely all over the surface.

This handsome novelty is in every new Spring shade, dark or light the patterns are unique broken and plain checks, new combinations of narrow and wide stripes in harmonizing or contrasting colors and a number of indefinite patterns giving entirely new effects.

Rajah Silks are 27 inches wide and are stylishly appropriate for Gowns, Fancy Costumes, Coats, Waists, Skirts or any purpose where silk can be used.

Annexation Is Bound to Come.

The citizens of the Fruitvale district have successively voted against incorporation and annexation, indicating that public sentiment in the southern suburbs has not yet crystallized in favor of a definite municipal policy. While the result of the election is somewhat disappointing it was not wholly unexpected, nevertheless, it is not discouraging. Annexation is bound to come in the near future, and it is not wise to grow impatient because it does not appeal to many at this time. The process of development will have an educating influence that will gradually leaven public sentiment. Physical and commercial conditions will in time teach their own lesson and enforce conformity of judgment. A great city cannot long continue to be divided into a group of petty political divisions, none of them having the strength or means to carry out a comprehensive scheme of municipal development. The new population in Fruitvale, Melrose and Elmhurst has not had time to assimilate with the older inhabitants, and the village habit has a persistence not to be overcome in a few weeks or months. Political progress must wait awhile on industrial growth and commercial expansion, but that is all. Greater Oakland is moving along on broad lines entirely independent of lines of municipal incorporation, and will work out its own destiny despite temporary checks and passing disappointments. The failure of annexation has thrown no cloud on the future; still less has it barred the path of advancement.

Sacramento has taken a rather large contract in attempting to punish everybody in favor of moving the capital to Berkeley. The display of vindictiveness will not help the Sacramentans when they appeal for votes two years hence.

Winter seems to be lapping all over spring.

The Pacific Ocean Exposition.

The proposed Pacific Ocean Exposition, to be held in San Francisco in 1913, should favorably interest every Californian. Hence there should be no objection to Governor Gillett signing the bill making an appropriation therefor. The exposition will afford an opportunity for inviting the world to see a new and greater San Francisco rebuilt on the ruins of the mighty conflagration of April, 1906. At the same time strangers can see the wonderful transformation that is now taking place on this side of the bay. By 1913 there will be two cities on San Francisco bay each larger than the one destroyed in 1906. The urban communities, comprising Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Emeryville, Fruitvale, Piedmont and Elmhurst will be built into one solid city, containing probably half a million inhabitants. San Francisco will be rebuilt more beautiful than before, and the bay of San Francisco will be more conspicuously than ever the maritime metropolis of the Pacific Ocean. An exposition, therefore, would not only be of world-wide interest, but would quicken the energies and stimulate the pride of the people of the Pacific Coast. Being held at the gateway of the western continent it would bring together in interesting contrast the commercial and industrial development of the Occident and the Orient. The nations of Europe and the nations of Asia, also the peoples of the island groups of the Pacific, would meet here on common ground to compare notes and study in comparison the methods of development in different lands under widely varying conditions. By 1913 the Panama Canal will be nearly completed, and the Pan-American railroad will be stretching ends to draw North and South America into closer communication. Consequently the proposed exposition will not only be the exhibit of an epoch but an object lesson showing the mighty changes in political and commercial geography now taking place. Every part of California will share in the benefits, and every part of the State be correspondingly interested.

When Fruitvale gets bigger she will be ready to annex. Still she is already too large for some of her big men. Some men are too big for the towns in which they live. Others are too small. Fruitvale, unfortunately, has grown faster than some of her leading citizens. There is still a survival of the village statesman of the type of the groundhog weather prophet and the man who believes in the raw potato remedy for rheumatism. However, death and the schoolhouse are thinning them out.

As a breeder and propagator of plants Luther Burbank has achieved a marvelous success and earned world-wide fame, but it does not follow that he knows all about the rearing and training of children. Nevertheless, a good many people are disposed to accept Mr. Burbank as indisputable authority in regard to child rearing and training. Mr. Burbank has never reared any children of his own and his married life was not a success. This does not imply fault on his part, but neither does it argue that he is qualified to teach others how to rear and train their children. Plants and children are quite different things, and no generalization drawn from experience with the one can apply to the other. A successful parent may be a very poor gardener, but a successful gardener may be a very poor parent and an unsafe guide for children.

The Nevada papers are complaining because Reno is not given terminal rates by the Southern Pacific. Reno is not a competitive point, being without water communication and situated on a single trunk line. It has no more claim to be considered a terminal point than Winnemucca or Elko. The argument in favor of giving it terminal rates is equally strong in favor of giving terminal rates to every railroad station in the country. The fact that Reno is larger than some other towns counts for nothing in the economics of transportation. Reno is an important distribution point, but it is in no sense a terminal point in the transportation sense. The contention that it is entitled to terminal rates because it is a point of distribution is opposed to the law of competition and universal practice.

SERVIA AND ITS TRAGEDIES.

A strangely fascinating story of the supernatural has lately come out of the turbulent little country of Servia on no less authority than Chedo Mijatovitch, who was once Servian Minister to Great Britain, and for thirty years has served the Servian

George W. Perkins has given back to the New York Life Insurance Company the $48,000 he had used for a campaign contribution.—News Item

Cabinet. It tells of the visions of a certain illiterate Servian peasant, Matheas of Kremna, 40 years ago, which were written in the country's records, foretelling the political events of Servia in the greatest detail, all of which have so far come to pass as prophesied, and now it but remains that King Peter's reign shall soon end violently. Then, according to the prophecy, a foreign army will invade the country, causing much suffering, a man will rise from the midst of the people and drive out the foreigners, uniting the Servians under his reign and a long era of peace will be inaugurated. And when these events shall have happened the visions of Matheas will have been fulfilled.

The story of Matheas is uncanny. One day he appeared on the streets of Belgrade weeping and shouting, "They are murdering the prince." He became so frantic in his appeal in behalf of Prince Michael Obrenovitch, then ruler of Servia, that a great crowd collected and he was locked up as crazy. A few hours afterwards the news came that at the moment of his vision Michael was assassinated in distant Ujman. Then his reputation as a seer grew and the government reduced his prophecies to writing. He foretold that a boy should reign and marry unhappily, have one son and divorce his wife, lead in wars, have several years of trouble, abdicate and die while still young in a foreign land. The exact words of the prophecy were as follows: "His son will succeed him, have a still more turbulent reign, will marry a woman from the people, and in his twenty-seventh or twenty-eighth year will cease to be king, his dynasty perishing with him. He will be replaced on the throne by Peter Karageorgevitch, who will reign about three years and then also disappear."

As one by one each forecast came to pass, according to Mijatovitch, the prophecies had the most fateful influence on the government and the people. Men said: "What Matheas of Kremna foretold must be," and shrugging their shoulders, indicating their helplessness to combat the inevitable, awaited the outcome. Four years ago, as Matheas saw in his vision, Alexander in his twenty-eighth year, together with Draga and some thirty officers, were the victims of the bloodiest deed in modern history when they were butchered in their palace. Now in the cafes of Belgrade the people are saying that Peter must perish as Matheas foretold, while conspiracies are rife in the palace and Peter cowers in the deadly terror of assassins' daggers.

Of a certainty this is a strange tale of the predestination of things. But little Servia is a queer country. First, a peasant rules wearing an iron crown; then a peasant foretells her fate. It does not require great fancy to imagine that the gods have decreed that Servia shall expiate some great sin of the past for a hundred years or else they have made of her their stage upon which her people must play the comedies and tragedies of their brief periods. But whatever may have been written for her on the pages of the book of fate, she has been the victim of the passions, the vanity and the jests of mortals. Her purple robes have suffered the rents of many daggers, and they have been many times dyed in the crimson of blood of kings and princes.—Kansas City Star.

AN UNGALLANT ACTOR.

A known American actor, who is old enough not to consider himself a matinee idol by any means, was somewhat surprised and pleased in a St. Louis hotel a short time ago, when a pretty girl stopped him in the corridor and presented him with a rose, without saying a word. He was more surprised and less pleased to receive a note the following day reminding him of the incident, and asking him to send the giver of the flower two seats at the theater in which he was playing "as a memento of the occasion." "My dear young lady," the actor replied, waxing sarcastic as he realized what had been the object of the attention he had been paid. "I would be glad to send you the seats you ask for, but, on consultation with the manager of the theater, I have been informed that the seats are all fastened down, and that he is opposed to having them sent away as souvenirs in any event, so that you will have to be contented with an autograph for a souvenir of your benevolence of yesterday instead."—Harper's Weekly.

Nightcaps, according to a London dispatch, are again becoming fashionable. Society, may yet, it is hoped, return to the old-fashioned custom of saving its prayers before retiring.—Kansas City Star.

Pointed Paragraphs

Mrs. Wheeler—Whatever else his faults, we can't but say that Fiske's young man is constant.

Mr. Wheeler—Constant? Humph! I should think "continuous" expressed it better.

Mrs. Cobwiger—I don't see how your dinner made you sick.

Freddie—Why, ma, didn't you make me eat only the things that were good for me?

Newrich (in a moment of confidence)—I don't seem to quite get the hang of this society business. Even my footman seems to be a laughing-stock.

Cobwiger—You'd get along all right, old man, if you dropped the airs you put on and made your footman assume them instead.

In New York—"Look here, cabby, I want to catch the 4 o'clock ferry at Twenty-third street. How much will you charge?"

"Shure! If ye want to catch the four o'clock boat, ye have no time to be argutyn' about the fare."

Mr. Crabshaw—Aren't there an awful lot of officers in your club?

Mrs. Crabshaw—I suppose so, my dear, but we found the only way to preserve harmony was to give every member an office.

Panhard—I'm disgusted with that infernal auto of mine. I can't make the thing go.

Friend—Why don't you advertise it for sale?

Panhard—I would, only I'm afraid that whoever comes to see it will expect me to give him a trial spin in it.

First American child—Here I am ten years old and my parents actually objected to my going to the matinee.

Second American child—The truth is that parents nowadays are getting spoiled.

"How did Bluster happen to let all his business get away from him?" asks the sympathetic friend.

"Oh," explains the hard-headed acquaintance, "he got so busy writing articles on 'how to succeed' that he didn't have time to look after his own affairs."

Old Gentleman—What has been the cause of your downfall?

Tramp—Well, yer see, I used ter be a music teacher; but I've bin out uv work ever since dey had dese here automatic planner players.

First artist (patronizingly)—Van Dike is a good fellow, but he never will be a finished painter.

Second artist—No; all of his figures are entirely too lifelike.

TAKE UP CRY OF MOTHERS

PHILADELPHIA, March 15.—Two Philadelphia girls have organized a junior suffrage association among the girls and boys of the Swarthmore Preparatory School. They are Rose and Julia Avery, secretary of Rachel Foster Avery, secretary of the National Suffrage Association, and therefore come naturally by their zeal for the cause of woman's rights.

Upon Rose, the younger of the sisters, who is but 15 years old, it is regarded that the mantle of Susan B. Anthony is destined to fall. It is said that upon her deathbed the great champion of the movement expressed this hope; that, she said, looking fondly upon the picture of the little girl, which ever hung beside her: "If there is such a thing as a soul returning to inhabit another body, may mine come back to this dear child."

Both girls are charming, healthy bubbling over with enthusiasm. They enter the spirit of the subject of woman's rights as heartily as they do their studies and their outdoor sports. In short, they are well-rounded little women, with every evidence of being of use in the world. They take themselves quite seriously in regard to the cause that they so early champion. Their seriousness is of the optimistic brand.

"The men are going to get equal rights for us, and, of course, we must educate them while they are young," said Rose the other day. "We must get some of the foolish ideas of their fathers out of their heads."

GRAND OPERA BY WIRELESS

NEW YORK, March 15.—The wireless telegraph station at the Brooklyn Navy Yard has been picking grand opera selections out of the air for several days and night, which, while they proved entertaining, had a way of coming into the station just when the operator was taking an important message.

One of the operators went over to the office of an electrical music company to see about it.

MUSIC INTERRUPTS OPERATOR

On the top floor the operator found Lee De Forest, the wireless expert, turning the "William Tell" overture and a lot of other grand opera selections loose.

"The electric music people said that while these currents were only for a Broadway hotel that had a receiving pole on the roof, the navy yard operators or any one else that had the apparatus was welcome to them."

HORSE BATH IS NEW MOVE

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 15.—Horses of this city, regardless of their stations of life, are assured of plenty to drink and cooling baths next summer, as a result of the efforts of humane society women and the Women's Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Under the title of Cruelty to Animals, Under the scale and tableaux were held last night at the New Century Drawing Room for the benefit of the horse watering stations' department.

WOMAN TO CARE FOR ANIMALS IN NOVEL WAY

Nicholas Douy and Domenico Antonio Bova, the boy violinist, furnished the musical portion of the programme. These children participated in the tableaux: Walter Scott, Blossie Junkin, Elizabeth McDonald, Virginia O'Donnell, Mabel Gillman, William Struth and James S. Cozens. Much credit for the success of the entertainment is due to John F. Cozens, special agent in charge of the stations, and Miss Elizabeth Baker, who directed the tableaux.

SKIPS WITH SPOUSE'S CASH

NORFOLK, Va., March 15.—Determining that her husband should not forsake the profession of a veterinarian to become a steamship operator, Mrs. William Severn, disappeared with her husband's capital stock of $1000.

Mrs. Severn thought his proposed venture too risky. Severn took his wife into his confidence as to his plans for making himself and her rich by operating an excursion boat on Hampton Roads during the Jamestown Exposition.

The woman left word that she would not be back with the cash until after the exposition or until her husband had given up the idea of becoming a steamboat magnate.

HER HOME-COMING

By GUY WETMORE CARRYL.

She's coming home from other lands
Across the sea's wide, wondrous breast,
And I shall touch her little hands
When at my side again she stands,
And see her eyes; and that is best!
Straight-steered into the glowing west,
Unerring borne where breakers comb
And all my longings are at rest,
For oh, she's coming home!

Again in that dim-lighted room,
Where all my dearest memories cling,
I'll find the hyacinth's perfume
And hear, soft-stealing through the gloom,
The tender songs she used to sing.
I doubt me much if life can bring
Me brighter hours, where'er I roam,
Than those that soon with her shall wing,
For oh, she's coming home!

She's coming home, and all the air
Grows soft as spring when she draws near,
And if my heart recks not of care,
If that one thought makes life so fair,
What will it be when she is here?
Alone with her I deem so dear
My heart grows light as laughing foam,
And even now the skies are clear,
For oh, she's coming home!

O strange, great sea, O fickle wind,
She trusts her frailness unto you:
With her within your arms be kind,
In her dear heart my love is shrined,
So bear her safe, so guide her true;
And, heaven, stretch unclouded, blue,
Above her head your depthless dome,
And guide her all the voyage through,
For oh, she's coming home!

IN OAKLAND SOCIETY

Mrs. Guy C. Earl was hostess yesterday at a delightful session of the Thursday Club held at her home. After an interesting hour at cards the prize was carried off by Mrs. Charles E. Snook. The members of this club are: Mrs. Irving Ayers, Mrs. W. B. Baxter, Mrs. M. C. Chapman, Mrs. W. H. Creed, Mrs. Guy C. Earl, Mrs. E. N. Ever, Mrs. A. M. Rosborough, Mrs. C. E. Snook, Mrs. E. P. Stone, Mrs. P. J. G. Kenna, Mrs. W. H. High, Mrs. E. C. Morrison, Mrs. J. W. Nelson, Mrs. C. B. Parcells, Mrs. Lander Redman, Mrs. J. H. Todd, Mrs. Reis Thompson, Mrs. G. C. Whitney.

BENEFIT AFFAIRS.

The current events section of the Oakland Club will entertain next Thursday at an elaborate tea to be given at the home of Mrs. E. H. Forrester on Linden street for the benefit of the fund promised by the club to aid in the purchase of a home for the working girls.

The praiseworthy cause has prompted Mrs. E. G. De Wald to open her home for a large affair to take place early in April. This movement to assist working girls is receiving cordial support from club and society women.

EBELL CLUB.

Ebell is making the most elaborate preparations in the history of the club for the opening reception of the handsome new club house.

A dance and promenade concert will be the feature of the evening. Mrs. E. W. Owen is chairman of the general committee of arrangements. Mrs. George H. Wheaton, assisted by a large party of the clubwomen, will receive the several hundred guests and Mrs. T. C. Coogan is arranging for the dance. Among the other women who are busily planning for the event are Mrs. F. B. Ogden, Mrs. H. C. Capwell, Mrs. E. D. Yorker, Mrs. F. T. McHenry, Mrs. Charles Woodbury, Mrs. J. B. Hume, Miss Eva Powell.

OAKLAND CLUB.

The Oakland Club held an interesting afternoon this week at the attractive quarters in Pythian Castle.

The feature of the program was a talk by the Hon. Philip M. Walsh upon "Workings of the Legislature." Mr. Walsh sketched in a clever speech the odd characters to be found at the convention and delivered a tribute to Governor Gillett which was received with enthusiasm.

After the meeting a reception was tendered the Assemblyman and his Mrs. Cora Jones, president of the Oakland club, stated that over $100 had been subscribed of the $250 pledged for the Y. W. C. A. The current events section—Mrs. E. N. de Leon, curator, have signified their intention of contributing $25 toward the amount. Next Wednesday Mrs. Sara Reamer will be presiding hostess of the day, which is to be devoted to St. Patrick. Mrs. Henry East was chairman of the reception committee at the meeting held yesterday, when she was assisted in her gracious duties by Mrs. F. R. Chadwick, Mrs. H. C. Capwell, Miss Alice Flint, Mrs. C. F. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Bartholomew, Mrs. L. A. Beretta, Mrs. Hugo Abrahamson, Mrs. E. Chambers, Mrs. E. B. Caldwell, Mrs. Gertrude, Mrs. Brodie, Mrs. John Gordon, Mrs. W. Westphal, Mrs. W. B. Fawcett, Mrs. W. Morgan and Miss Ida Lackey.

WILL LECTURE.

Mrs. James of Mills College will deliver a lecture on Domestic Science, before Oakland Grange, Saturday, March 16, at 2 p. m., in I. O. O. F. Hall, Eleventh and Franklin streets.

NEW POSITION.

L. F. Goodale, for several years chief (civil) engineer of the Burlington Route at St. Louis, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. E. C. Colby of East Oakland. Mr. Goodale has accepted the position of supervising engineer to the Philippine Commission at Manila, and left yesterday on the Nippon Maru with his wife and son Edward for that city.

THIMBLE BEE.

Miss Eda Curdis was hostess last Wednesday at an informal sewing bee given at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. B. Mehrmann on Grove street. Miss Curdis' guests included Mrs. Beach Dean, Mrs. H. J. Lackey, Mrs. Harry Anderson, Miss Katherine Gray, Miss Marion Barnard, Miss Edith Enigh, Miss Abba Sanborn.

EURYDICE CLUB.

The Euridyce Club will give its second concert of the fourth season Tuesday evening, March 19, at Hamilton auditorium.

The officers of the club are: Miss Cornelia Anderson, president; Miss

MRS. E. G. DE WALD who will entertain at an elaborate card party as a benefit for the working girls' home.

Marion Wolff, vice-president; Miss Ruth Thompson, secretary; Mrs. Clarence Lancaster, treasurer; Mrs. E. E. Wood, librarian.

The members are: Cornelia Anderson, Florence Camp, Vera Campbell, Jane Dickie, Jennie Eccleston, Hattie Gray, Clair Fahrenholtz, Carrie Hazeltine, Madge Helmhold, Grace Johnson, Eva Stewart Jolly, Pearl King, Clair Le Boulanger, Bertha Lancaster, Ernestine Leimert, Mae Miller, Carlita Moore, Etta Ogden, Carolyn Crew Rason, Etta Parsons, Edith Russell, Ruth Thompson, Maud Turrell, Edith Tibbets, Edith Warner, Helen Weber, Flo Wilcox, Claribel Williams, Winifred Wilson, Marion Wolff, Laura Wood.

The program is announced as follows:

Baritone solo, L. A. Larsen.

PART II.

Yo-Nennen.....Wasili Lepa

FOR BRIDE ELECT.

Miss Caro Mills will be hostess at a series of informal affairs for Miss Elva Reed, whose engagement to William Grosshuth was recently announced.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement is announced of Miss Frances Coon, an attractive San Francisco society girl and Oliver Kehrein. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. A. Palmer Duffey and comes from one of the best known families in the State.

Oliver Kehrein is a San Franciscan who has traveled extensively and taken degrees at Stanford and Columbia universities. He is prominent in the business world.

The wedding will be an event of the early summer.

REVOLVER CLUB.

Mrs. Dudley Smith and Miss Allie Miller entertained the Ladies' Revolver club recently and among those who had creditable scores were Mrs. Elmer Vaughan, Mrs. Trego, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. D. Wald, Mrs. Lauman and Mrs. Miller.

The prizes were a silver tray, cut glass vase and a picture won by Mrs. De Wald and presented to the club. Supper was served late in the evening.

IN NEW YORK.

The following Californians are in New York:

From San Francisco—P. D. Cordes, New Amsterdam Hotel.

From San Jose—T. A. Mills and wife, Grand Union Hotel; G. N. Rodgers, New Amsterdam; E. R. Shaw, Broadway Central.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Rohlf left yesterday for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Walsh and Miss Marion Walsh are at their home on Monte Vista avenue after a delightful trip in the East.

Mrs. E. J. Cotton has returned after an interesting visit in New York and New Orleans where she enjoyed the Mardi Gras festivities.

INFORMAL EVENING.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baker entertained a score of friends last evening at a delightful affair given at their home on Webster street. The guests included the members of a writers' club and a few additional guests. Several clever stories were read and after an impromptu musical program a supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker's guests were Charles D. Stuart, honored guest on this occasion, Miss Charlotte Canty, Charles Tenney Jackson, Peter Kynne, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McKnight, Miss McKnight, Herman Whitaker, Miss Elsie Whitaker, Mrs. Albert Smith, Miss Bradetta Smith, Mrs. Edna E. Kinard, Mrs. Kinard, Miss Helen Powell, Jesse Dibert.

IN PARIS.

PARIS, March 14.—Mrs. McGroff and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Liebes of San Francisco registered at the Call-Herald bureau today.

"TIDINGS OF THE TIMES."

When the baseball pitcher is up in the air he's down and out.

Joe Weldon Bailey always has his temper up to a weldin' heat.

Artists' models are regarded as wicked until one thinks of cloak models.

The parvenus who break into society make more breaks after they break in.

The negro named Ruffin, hanged in Virginia yesterday, was probably a "burley" Ruffin.

The Kansas City motorman who threw an alarm clock at his wife gave her a lively time.

The Republicans who favor Hadley for Governor think if he is given full rein he can't be snowed under.

The farmer is called the "bone and sinew of the land." He supplies the fat of the land for others.

An Iowa girl locked her parents in the cellar before she eloped. Love doesn't always turn up his nose at locksmiths.

"Speaking of alienists," said Uncle Henry Butterworth, "most bughouse experts are full of their subject."

GIFT OF FIANCE.

It would not be out of the way to add that Miss Taylor's fiance, Mr. Jackson, sent the black rag doll "Nig" to her just before his death, saying that he was to take care of her, and keep her from flirting. This little joke, together with the doll, served to comfort her while compelled to be away from him in his final illness in Colorado.

So the sentiment connected with her mascot may be pardoned, when we remember it was a memento of one whom she loved.

WOMEN AS CONVERSATIONALISTS

AMERICANS ARE MOST CHARMING

Not long ago I heard a man who has lived a great deal abroad criticizing rather severely American women as conversationalists. Of course, he was promptly confronted with our national claim to wit, our fame in repartee, our appreciation of humor, but he still refused to withdraw his unflattering opinion. And ever since I have been going about listening hard to prove to myself that it was a false or prejudiced one. As yet I have not quite succeeded in convincing myself that he was altogether wrong.

"In intimate, personal conversation," the critic admitted, "our women are charming—quick, whimsical, gay, full of subtlety and sentiment. But in conversation which is neither intimate nor personal they do not approach the cultivated women of Europe. They have not the same ease and surety of expression, they venture their opinions timidly, and their opinions prove to be but echoes.

"They dare not commit themselves as to what they think of Bernard Shaw, or Preraphaelitism, or the question of trusts, or the Brownsville episode, until they have found out that their views are not going to be disagreeable to any one who hears them. Which is vastly polite, of course," concluded the critic, "but as tiresome as timidity and imitation always are."

I am almost afraid that I agree with the charge, but not with the reasons assigned for our shortcomings. Not politeness, not fear of offending our hearers' pet prejudices, keeps many of us silent for a time when matters of fact and the opinions of the world are being discussed, but plain ignorance. We haven't read Bernard Shaw, we have only the vaguest idea of what Preraphaelitism means, but we aren't going to confess our ignorance and keep out of the talk. No, indeed, we are going to acquire a reputation for general cultivation by sliding in with what seems to be a safe observation as soon as we can.

At least, that is the way it seems to one social observer.

YOUNG GIRL IS A RIFLE SHOT

WELLSBORO, Mar. 15.—The friends of little Miss Ruth Truman, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bach Truman, of this place, and they include everybody in the town that knows her, declare that she is the youngest rifle shot in the Commonwealth.

She is a descendant of the oldest and first families of the county. Many of her ancestors were enthusiastic sportsmen, but it remained for Ruth to be the first of her family in whom love of the sport has diverged from the male line.

Her father, who holds a responsible position with the First National Bank of Wellsboro, is widely known as one of the most scientific and successful users of rod and gun in this section.

Since little Ruth was able to sit up and notice things, she has accompanied her father on many of his fishing and hunting expeditions and has developed a passionate love for the sports of outing.

Absolute freedom from fear in her make-up is a predominating characteristic, and at the age of four, yielding to her father's wishes, she will wing Cupid at the first shot.

GOES WITH HER FATHER ON HUNTING TRIP

to her importunities, her father taught her to use a rifle, and since she purchased her one of suitable size, which she handles like a veteran.

While Ruth has not qualified in the sharpshooter's class, it probably will not be long before she does.

In addition to her precocity in this line, she has suddenly developed, with the age, a consuming admiration for the very rich, and it forms a goodly share of her conversation.

While her mother was combing her hair one day this week, Ruth, who had been in a contemplative mood for some minutes, roused from her brown study and said:

"Mamma, do you know of any rich, good looking, young unmarried men around here?"

"No, Ruth," said her mother. "Are you contemplating matrimony?"

"Not just now," Ruth replied, with mischievous twinkle in her bright eyes, "but I thought I might as well be looking around."

If Ruth develops the prowess as she grows into young womanhood, that her present attractive looks indicate, she will wing Cupid at the first shot.

WHO CONTROLS PURSE STRINGS

BOSTON, March 15.—While lawyers say Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy's personal fortune amounts to at least $1,000,000, which is in a Concord, N. H., bank, Stephen A. Chace, of Fall River, retired tanner, converted, as he says, when he was cured of blood poisoning, holds the purse strings of the Christian Science Church.

Alfred Farlow, spokesman of the church in Boston, says that these purse strings include a fund of between $12,000,000 and $13,000,000. Treasurer Chace, who lives at Fall River, says Farlow is generally correct in any of his statements.

INFORMATION AS TO MRS. EDDY'S FORTUNE

Treasurer Chace has put a large amount of his personal property in his wife's name but denied with emphasis today that he had ever deposited any of the church funds in it.

"What if Mrs. Eddy's son has entered suit against her?" said Treasurer Chace today. "Is that any reason why the mother church in Boston and the entire Christian Science fold should be dragged into it, too?"

"In my eyes, it is nothing more than a personal matter between our beloved leader and her son. Let me say with emphasis that there is absolutely nothing to be uncovered or exposed. Everything is as straight as a string."

NEEDLE ENTERS CHILD'S BODY

CHESTER, Pa., March 15.—While being caressed by his mother, two-year-old Louis Stenberg was stuck in the abdomen by a long darning needle which the mother had fastened in her dress.

BABY IMPALED IN ARMS OF IT'S MOTHER

At the Chester Hospital surgeons extracted the needle with a powerful magnet. An examination showed the point of the steel to have penetrated as far as the abdominal cavity.

SEEKS DEATH ON GRAVE

PHILADELPHIA, March 15.—Despondent because of her death, Charles Becker, 53 years old, of 3121 North Seventeenth street, made an attempt to end his life at his wife's grave in Northwood Cemetery, a few days ago by drinking laudanum.

Becker was found lying prostrate across the moind of earth by a cemetery employee.

He was hurried to the Jewish Hospital in a patrol wagon. Doctors at the hospital say he will probably recover.

After regaining consciousness, Becker refused to give any reason for his action other than that he was tired of living.

WOMAN GETS A NEAT SUM

PITTSBURGH, March 15.—Pittsburgh attorneys, who have been searching for Mrs. Cora Tate, to hand her $5000, recently found her in Los Angeles, Cal. Word was sent her to come to Pittsburgh at once.

David Tate, her husband, was killed her.

COMPLETING FINE ART BUILDING AT PIEDMONT

It Will Be One of the Finest Lighted Places in the United States.

The Piedmont Development Company is erecting an edifice consisting of three buildings in Piedmont Park. It consists of galvanized iron and follows the old mission style of architecture.

The building now in the course of construction is to be used as an art gallery, where social functions are to be given. The building has been treated like a stone structure. George Elliot is the builder and Miss Florence Nae is the architect and designer.

The electrical effects which will run up in the thousands have been designed by S. N. Baruch electrical engineer of the Oakland Electric Company.

In the first building there will be a light so arranged as to reflect all the light in the form of a ribbon on the pictures causing one to wonder where the light comes from. In these reflections there is an electric candle power equal to 50,000 candle power. If this were in candles side by side they would reach from the City Hall to the entrance of Piedmont Park allowing each candle to be four inches in length. When the three buildings are lighted they will consume in one night more electricity than the whole of Piedmont uses in one month and costs one-half of a cent a second thirty cents a minute and $13 an hour. It averages 6000 light candle power lights.

The building is semi circle in shape and contains 9,000,000 square feet of wall surface for hanging paintings. One third of the entire roof is glazed and it is as light in the interior of the building as it is on the exterior. The style of architecture is one seen through the trees remains one of an ancient Grecian temple. It attracts the attention of the sight-seer upon entering the grounds.

THE GROUNDS

The grounds are in the form of a bridge and are a beautiful holding what seems to be worlds. Along the bridge there is a series of uprights forming a series of electric lights which at night would be of stars. In the trees at the top of the art temple there are electric lights hidden among their leafy branches which impress one as little fire flies.

On the porch there will be several electric lights making it very bright. On each side of the doorway there will be two brackets of wrought iron of a design appropriate to a building of this kind. Through a veritable or lobby there is a large room which seems to be aglow with color being the pictorial efforts of some of our most famous artists. On the way to the end of the room and turning about one sees above the door through which they have just entered another large picture about 12 feet long by 8 feet deep which seems realistic beyond the spectators' wildest dreams. Of a sudden it strikes one where the light comes from. It seems to leave the entire room in twilight.

LAST ROOM.

At the farthest end of the room there is an entrance to the second building. This building is divided into four rooms which contain pictures of various kinds each room containing a certain style of art symbolical of nature. Landscapes, marine views, marine views, heads, figures and groups. These rooms are lighted individually.

The buildings described above are only intended to be temporary.

GUARDIANSHIP IS SETTLED

Court Makes Appointments in the Case of Mrs. Eliza
Reed.

After quarrelling in the courts over the guardianship of Mrs. Eliza Reed Judge Harris has settled the question by appointing Captain B. F. Buzard, brother guardian over the person and George Schumacher, assistant cashier of the Union National Bank guardian of the estate. By this action the court has denied the petition of Henry H. Watson a son in law. The estate is valued at $70,000.

REBOUND IN OPENING PRICES

Prices Begin to Crumble Again on Exchanges and Revive

NEW YORK March 15.—The stock market today recovered emphatically and with growing conviction as the day progressed from the violent demoralization of yesterday. In the struggle to control the market during the first hour there was a sudden recovery about half the opening gain. Another sharp reaction occurred about noon with the forecast of a weak bank statement. The determined support of the market proved effective, however, on all reactions and carried prices actually to wide advances over last night. The day's recoveries while substantial by no means restored the full measure of yesterday's losses.

NEW YORK March 15.—Excitement prevailed in the financial district previous to the opening of the stock exchange today, owing to the consequences to be dreaded from the slaughter of prices yesterday.

A convulsive rebound in the opening prices showed the result of protective measures adopted over night. The first buoyant upward flight of prices was immediately taken advantage of to resume the unloading of stocks, and prices began to crumble again in a manner which revived the uneasiness prevalent yesterday.

FLUCTUATIONS WILD.

Fluctuations were very wild and feverish for a time, below the opening level but without all of the opening gains being sacrificed.

The buoyant rise in London was the prime factor in lifting prices here.

The orders issued by the Secretary of the Treasury after the market closed yesterday gave hopes of relief from line money stringency, although considerable confusion was shown in the opinions held as to how great the effect of these measures would be.

HOPE HELD OUT.

It was hoped that the large disbursements falling due today of dividends and interest would cause a prompt return to the money markets of funds tied up in preparation for these disbursements. In the same way it was expected that payments of subscriptions on new stock and railroad notes would be re-deposited with the banks and become immediately available in the money market.

establishing some renewal of confidence was the belief founded on reports that large banking and financial interests had been in conference over night in regard to the situation and came to a determination to adopt protective measures for supporting prices.

NO FAILURES.

Satisfaction was felt that no failures had resulted from yesterday's violent unsettlement and over the general testimony of bankers that they saw no signs of unsoundness in the banking situation or the condition of credits.

In a few stocks there was evidence of further forced liquidation, the Rock Island and Mackay stocks falling away. Supporting measures were persisted in and the wild fluctuations of the first dealings showed a narrowing tendency.

Shortly after 11 o'clock it was stated that the clearing house members had gone through without difficulty. This was accepted as an indication that no failure would be announced today.

Call money, loaned at 15 per cent shortly before noon.

LONDON EXCHANGE.

LONDON, March 15.—During the early trading upon the stock exchange today prices in the American market were marked up by quotations much business, but with quotations improving, which resulted in some buying by houses which had left American alone for years and also by continental bankers and investors who were attracted by their cheapness. The higher priced American stocks opened at 3 to 7 points above parity.

Union Pacific opened at 115 and soon went up to 117, but lost 14. American bankers and brokers here are unable to account for the nervous condition of the market and can only explain that the operators in New York are also at sea.

Trading by noon approximated one million shares. Business fell off after midday with the advance in call loans to 15 per cent. Banks and brokers generally reported a fair all-around demand for lots for better class of security by small investors. Call money declined to 12 per cent before 1 o'clock.

WANT BETTER COASTGUARD

War Department Asks Sea Board Governors to Join in New Plan.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Letters have been sent by Assistant Secretary Oliver of the War Department to the Governors of all seaboard states asking their co-operation in the development of the War Department's plan for the training of an effective coast guard through the operation of organized militia in connection with the regulars assigned to coast artillery service.

The letters were accompanied by circulars prepared by the chief of artillery, setting forth his scheme to set aside a portion of the state troops in all the coast states for artillery service, the state troops to have each year from seven to ten days of training at an artillery post under the direction of the regulars. The chief of artillery also suggests designation of certain state troops to protect the land side of the coast artillery posts, which plan entails no additional expense upon the states.

RADCLIFFE GIRLS TO WRITE A SONG

Realizing that the fair sex has no share in the sentiment or associations that inspired the composition of "Fair Harvard," Radcliffe's students, goaded by unusual effort by the persuasive arguments of the different college glee clubs, have decided to compose a college song that will be all their very own.

A song that must possess "soul, sentiment and passion," one that will go down to the ages, a harmonious composition in which the virtues of "Fair Radcliffe" can be sung at all times and in all places—this is what Radcliffe wants. The competition is open to the whole student body.

Radcliffe does not want anything very strenuous. Nothing on the plan of "Up the Street," for Radcliffe students do not believe in the yelling, vigorous, "piece the line" fiercely compositions that characterize the poetic efforts of the football composers. Instead of that, they want a song that shall let the untalented know just how near Radcliffe stands to Longfellow's house and the venerated Washington elm. Something that will gently hint of the ultra exclusiveness of Radcliffe surroundings, and the halo of intellect that surrounds the institution.

No wonder that the midnight lamp burns constantly, that fair brows, swathed in cool, damp towels, are nightly bent in deep thought over the orderly desks, while enthusiastic poetesses seek for appropriate rhymes.—Boston Post.

WEDDING IN SIOUX "400"

Wealthy Indian Takes as Bride Granddaughter of Once Famous Chief.

While in Sioux Falls, S. D., on official business, Captain Jack Foster, government stock inspector on the Rosebud Indian reservation, reported a recent notable event in Sioux society circles on that reservation. The event was the marriage of Louise Spotted Tail of the Sioux nobility and Alfred Bordeaux, a mixed-blood Indian, who is one of the wealthiest men of the reservation. Interest was added to the marriage by the fact that the bride is the granddaughter of Spotted Tail, the famous chief, who was shot and killed in the early '80s by Crow Dog, one of his brethren, as the result of an Indian feud.

The marriage of the descendant of the old chief was celebrated by a big feast and dance, in which hundreds of the Indians participated. Bordeaux and his bride are well civilized and dress in the accepted style of the whites. As the bride also is quite wealthy in her own right, the couple is looked upon as being the leader of the Sioux "400."

STREET CAR STRIKE SOON

So Intimates Mayor Schmitz in Letter to Former Police Commissioner.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Mayor Schmitz formally accepted the resignation of Harry T. Creswell, Police Commissioner, in a remarkable letter mailed to the retiring officer yesterday. In the letter the Mayor predicts a street car strike for May 1 of this year. Although the time of the strike is set for 6 weeks off, and considerable work could have been accomplished by the Board before that time, Creswell was let out. It was with much regret that Mayor Schmitz accepted the resignation of Creswell, which had been in his hands since last August.

Clan of McGrau Will Arrive in Morning -- Gleason Guarantees Game -- Gossip.

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN

The real temper of the baseball loving public will be tried out tomorrow at San Francisco. Gleason has his park fairly well patched up and tomorrow the local New York Gans ex-champions of the world will run up in the pennant race. The National League last year will be sure to win the title in the 1907 season.

The Gans are in fact the only team with whom a complete team of class ball players is the only one of the kind. Only Michael Meladonous Doulin.

Just think of it. The first re going to see the situation at a Christie Matthews. It is a fine.

They say Billy carries a roundhouse with him.

Rustle the quietest pitcher of all time. Besides, McGraw has practically invited to show from Man Joe McGraw. McGraw is probably the only one who can get the generation to see a pitcher. McGraw is a man who can get the Man who is a wonderful player will miss a chance to have something to talk about all season.

At his best McGraw is an unparaled pitcher. It is a pity that the color will not be the undoubted color of a great pitcher. It is a pity that the color will not be the undoubted color of a great pitcher.

McGINNITY A MARVEL

That same season when Min Joe pitched fifty consecutive games, more than one third of the entire championship series for the New Yorks. He won four out of five and his fame was spread all over the world.

Mathewson is a little more brilliant and picturesque than McGraw. The pink and cream complexion of Mathewson and his air of being a culture and a paragon of the Bucknell College pitcher. McGraw is a man who can get the Man who is a wonderful player will miss a chance to have something to talk about all season.

When Billy lets loose his roundhouse curve.

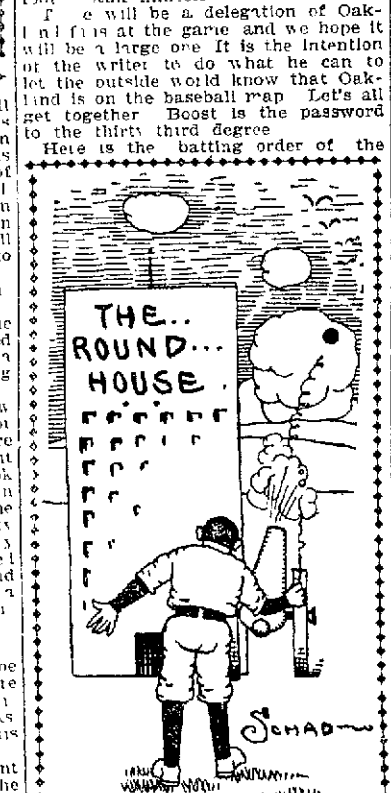

nothing less. Ames has yet to show his true form. McGraw thinks he is a great pitcher. McGraw is a man who can get the Man who is a wonderful player will miss a chance to have something to talk about all season.

outhpaw who barring his tendencies towards unsteadiness is a fair sort. Dan McGinn the man with the iron jaw is back at first. McGinn has thought from childhood to the present moment that every umpire is an orator and that he is a man with a name like McGinn would be expected to treat that sort of gentleman.

We don't know who will play second base. It is our hope that McGinn will play second base. McGinn is a man who can get the Man who is a wonderful player will miss a chance to have something to talk about all season.

WILD BILL DAHLEN

Dahlen will be it short. Dahlen is a baseball player since McGraw was a school boy. In the days when Van Houten was a Chicago star, Dahlen was a star. He was a wild and peppy gentleman. He was a man who can get the Man who is a wonderful player will miss a chance to have something to talk about all season.

The way they imagine Billy does it

Seals for tomorrow's game. Spencer at center field will be the very first man to face the opposing slapper. He will be followed by McGraw who is a man who can get the Man who is a wonderful player will miss a chance to have something to talk about all season.

'9-10' AND OUT FOR NELSON TOWN

CHICAGO March 15.—Hegewisch has taken the count. It is down and out of the map and Baiting Nelson is unhappy. It was he who gave Hegewisch to fame from the Pup to the Bowery from the Ghetto to the land of the Crooks from Piccadilly to Monte Carlo and Caribad. Baiting Nelson to save the name of the town today from a knockout blow by the railroad company—a knockout blow that he declared was foul. ABE ATTELL IS QUIETLY MARRIED

LOS ANGELES March 15.—Without letting their friends into the secret, Abe Attell the pugilist, and Miss Elizabeth Egan went to Santa Ana today and were married by Justice of the Peace Southwick. They made every possible effort to keep the fact of the marriage a secret, for it was practically an elopement.

Attell tonight denied that he had been to Santa Ana, and stated that he was in Chicago July 28, 1906. It is nevertheless a fact that such a marriage took place today and that the bridegroom gave instructions to have the certified copy of the record sent to the Hotel Sherman, Chicago.

ability once. He played with the Oakland club back in the latter 80's and had several offers to go into professional baseball but business always interfered with the call of the fan, and he remained steadfast to Oakland. Gemmell played with Santa Rosa in 1898 when the team represented that city won the championship of the State League. He is a crack handball player and devotee of sport and his reign as secretary of the Oakland baseball club should be a successful one.

Umpire John Sheridan the Californian who is dean of Ball Johnson's corps of arbitrators and thought by many fans and critics to be the best umpire in the land was in Oakland yesterday. He returned to his home in San Jose last night. Jack will be back here today after which he will return to San Jose and then report to St. Louis where he umpires the ante season series between the National and American League teams of that city. Sheridan will bring Umpire Jack McCarthy East with him and expects to place him on the regular staff of American League umpires.

Amateur Notes.

The D C Hahns will challenge any amateur team with players under sixteen years of age. Address all challenges to E C Hahn 1770 Seventh street West Oakland.

Professor Magee has finally consented to excuse a freshman baseball nine from gymnasium work every Wednesday afternoon for practice. This is some thing unusual for the men to be excused from gym but Professor Magee considers that it is for the best interests of the men and the class for otherwise the freshmen would receive no practice until their sophomore year.

RACING MAY LOSE HOLD INCANADA

OTTAWA Ont March 15.—What is probably the death knell of racing in the Dominion was sounded today when the Supreme Court handed down a decision holding that race track betting was strictly in violation of the Canadian law. The case was the outcome of an appeal of Jake Saunders Toronto book maker fined by a Toronto Justice for taking bets at the last Woodbine meeting. The case hinged on a technicality, a clause of the law reading that it was illegal to take bets on races at places constructed for the purpose of receiving wagers. Betting booths were held as places by the Supreme Court. Betting between individuals was upheld by the Supreme Court as perfectly in accordance with the law and hence some small hope is held out to the turfmen.

HERBERTS IS HUNTING TROUBLE

George Herberts is looking for an opponent to meet him at Crockett, March 26. Crockett is Herberts' home town and he is quite a favorite there. Frank George or Mauro Herrera will likely be his opponent. Tim McGrath managed Herberts for some time and predicted that he would some day be the champion in his class. While George has not fulfilled McGrath's expectations he is by no means a bad fighter, and he will win more than he will lose.

BASKETBALL PLAYERS TO MEET

Lick and Wilmerding meet at basketball this afternoon to decide second honors in the San Francisco sub-league. Both these teams were vanquished by Lowell High which has won the sub-league championship. The game will be played at the Young Men's Hebrew Association, Page near Stanton street, at 3:30 p.m. The teams will line up as follows: Lick—Forwards G Bromley (captain) and S Blume center, B Eveleth, guards, J McHenry and H Worth.

LACROSSE IS ASSURED NOW

The Pacific Lacrosse Association was organized at a meeting held last evening at which there was a good attendance of players and supporters of the game. The committee appointed at the preliminary meeting held last week submitted its report on constitution and by-laws and the report was adopted.

A permanent organization was decided. President, S. Theberge, first vice-president, Dr. E. J. Sisson of San Mateo, second vice-president, George James, Olympic Club, secretary-treasurer, George J. Mount, registration committee, R. S. Weaver, chairman, Fred H. Lynch and T. N. Dunn.

The game promises to be an exciting one, as the opposing teams have already met in three close contests this season.

GRANEY-COFFROTH DISPUTE MAY PREVENT THE BIG FIGHT

Unless Promoters Bury the Hammer San Francisco Will Not See Gans in Action.

By EDDIE SMITH.

James Coffroth, the astute impresario with the April permit up his sleeve, is dickering with Ben Selig in view of securing Gans' name to a set of articles calling for a twenty round contest between the negro and James Edward Britt. It may be that the Britt-Gans talk is a stall to frighten Nolan into signing up for Nelson with Rickard, who is very friendly to Coffroth and who would lend any assistance to the Nevada man that he could to help him secure the match he wants. Before Coffroth goes too far with the Gans-Britt talk if he is sincere, he had better obtain a promise from Eddie Graneley that he will keep his hands off Selig and Coffroth may have only the best of intentions in trying to match the two men, but if Selig signed articles for the match and Graneley sent word to Gans not to fight him of the opinion that Joe would refuse to go on with the match. Joe owes everything he has to Graneley, and unless I am very badly mistaken Joe appreciates it better than any one else. At the time when Gans was down and out after his shady fight with Britt, Eddie picked him up and insisted that he be given a chance to redeem himself. Morris Levy gave him the chance with Mike (Twin) Sullivan, and since that time he has earned a fortune. With the feeling existing between Coffroth and Graneley it hardly looks probable that James will succeed. If Graneley says he will stay neutral, then Coffroth has a good chance, as Britt is very friendly to him and Gans, though none too friendly realizes that Coffroth is the man who can bring the dollars in at the boxoffice. Graneley, on account of his enmity with the Britts, would have as little chance as Coffroth if he was trying to arrange the contest. Morris Levy might handle the bout, as he is friendly to both men, but the betting will be odds on that the contest will never come off in Frisco if the old trust war is to be resumed.

TENNISLADIES BILL JORDAN WORKING HARD SIGNS FOR SEASON

BERKELEY March 15.—The try-outs for the women's tennis team which is to meet Stanford are now going on though the date has not been settled. The manager has written to Stanford but has as yet received no reply. The meet will probably come off sometime in the early part of April. The management requests that the matches be played off as soon as possible as they are going very slowly. Only two matches having been played to date. The preliminaries will be played off by March 22d, in order to allow the tournament to go on.

Supreme Court Hears His Second Application for a Writ.

they followed the proceedings closely. Attorneys Ach and Shortridge were present, but they took no part, leaving the burden to Attorney Frank H. Murphy, who has been conducting the proceedings in the Federal Courts.

Murphy's first attack was on the order issued by Judge Dunne on March 13, continuing the authority of the elisor. He contended that the order was made without evidence. When the first order was made considerable evidence was taken and a number of affidavits were submitted. This evidence and those affidavits were utilized again when the second order was made.

IDLE FORMALITY.

Honey declared that it would be an idle formality to have repeated the evidence. Murphy did not think so and continuing his argument declared that even if evidence had been taken such an order as was given could not be sustained.

Honey, in his reply, said he found authority in the California reports for the course taken by Judge Dunne. Justice McFarland interrupted:

"Have you found any authority for continuing an elisor in office?"

NO AUTHORITY.

Honey admitted that there was no authority on that particular point. Justice McFarland thought the practice was dangerous. Honey replied that the elisor was under the order of the court, and that the order can be modified at any time.

"You mean to say that the elisor," continued Justice McFarland, "can take the prisoner to any part of the country, or out of the country, for that matter. In fact, he can lead the prisoner around like a slave?"

Honey answered that the court could fix the place of confinement, and the elisor, having to report daily in court, the dangers feared by the judge could not occur.

ARMED FORCE IN GOLDFIELD

Action of Business Men in Declaring Lockout Fraught With Danger.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., March 15.—Goldfield today is in a state of excitement following the publication of the action of the Business Men's and Mine Owners' Association to fight the Industrial Workers of the World by closing down all mines and business until such time as the miners shall have seceded from the Industrial Workers of the World. Guards are everywhere in the city, hundreds of deputy sheriffs and constables having been appointed as patrolmen. There has not been a sign of violence.

MARSHALS ON HAND.
It is learned on very good authority, but the citizens will not admit it, that a dozen United States deputy marshals arrived in town last night and are watching developments. Governor Sparks also is represented on the ground. The citizens have the assurance of nearly every business house that they will have nothing further to do with the Industrial Workers of the World. All the stores are closed this afternoon, but it is probable that the order will be modified so as to permit the butchers to remain open.

THIRD POLITICAL SMOKER IS HELD BY TAYLOR CLUB

W. J. GORHAM who favors E. K. Taylor for Mayor of Alameda.

Rousing Meeting in the City of Alameda to Advocate the Candidacy of E. K. Taylor.

ALAMEDA, March 15.—Five hundred citizens last night attended the most enthusiastic political gathering ever held in this city, when the third meeting of the Taylor Club was called in Encinal Hall at Bay station. From the opening musical number until E. K. Taylor, the club's candidate for Mayor, concluded his address, the crowd allowed its enthusiasm to find expression in many ways. When the candidate entered the hall he was greeted with prolonged cheers and his forcible and well-constructed epigrams in his talk, caused the address to be interrupted a number of times by the applause of the assemblage.

CALDER PRESIDED.

The meeting was presided over by J. C. Calder. Mayor Gorham was the principal speaker, other than the candidate, and his reasons for advocating E. K. Taylor for Mayor were strong and put to the audience in a clear way. The present Mayor was loudly cheered at the conclusion of his talk. E. E. Allen, a well known and prominent resident, at one time a member of Mr. Taylor's candidacy and declared that there was no man more fit for the office. Mr. Allen was the first speaker called on. He said in part:

TAYLOR ABLE MAN.

"I have been a resident of this city since 1883 and I want to see it economically and carefully governed and I do not know a man more fit to do so than E. K. Taylor. I remember the city when there were no paved streets and we carried lanterns to find our way at night. I remember E. K. Taylor as an enthusiast in the work he undertakes, and if he is elected to the office of Mayor I feel assured that there will be no act of his that will ever bring to him reproach or cause the voters of the city to feel sorry over."

HAS HIGH IDEALS.

"He is a man of high ideals, capable, energetic and always a supporter of governmental advances. With his ability, knowledge and incentive, he could and undoubtedly will be given the opportunity to place Alameda in that place among the cities of this country, where she will be looked to as a model in all affairs pertaining to the municipal government. Every man here should get out and vote for Mr. Taylor. Not only vote, himself, but secure the aid of his friends in electing to the office of Mayor a man who can administer the government satisfactorily to the people."

MAYOR GORHAM SPEAKS.

Mayor William Gorham, who declares he is forever through with politics, was the next speaker. He opened his remarks in his usual happy strain and had the gathering with him from the start.

"People ask me why I am supporting E. K. Taylor," he said, "that is easy to answer. Taylor started the new charter. He framed it and knows all about it. Alameda needs the new charter. It needs new life and Taylor is eminently fitted to fill the office of Mayor. I remember when Governor Allen had an idea that it would take Alameda under its wing and play the nice mother. But Alameda was coy and is coy to this day and now that Mr. Taylor has given us a new charter we can be so coy, and yet pretty, that some day we may take Oakland in."

PREVENTS ANNEXATION.

"Our charter keeps us free from that terrible entanglement of annexation, and we should feel proud of the men who framed the measure. Mr. Taylor has interests in Alameda. You work for him. I know you believe as I do and I feel sure that E. K. Taylor will be the next Mayor of our charming little city."

Frank Sumner Loop, a candidate for Councilman-at-Large, spoke for a moment on his feelings toward the city where he has lived for twenty years. He promised to do Alameda in his power to advance the interests of the city should the voters favor him with election.

CRIES FOR TAYLOR.

After Loop had concluded his talk repeated cries for Taylor came from all parts of the hall and Chairman Calder then called on the candidates. Mr. Taylor expressed his appreciation at seeing so many young men in the hall. He stated that the rights of the young men were to be considered in all matters and that the interest therein manifested was gratifying. Senator Taylor said in part:

LIES BEING PASSED.

"I hate to talk about petty things, but the lies that are being passed around on the streets at the present time are certainly annoying. In all of my political career I have never had to contend with such petty things as come daily, notice daily. I was said I intended appointing my brother Auditor. Now is that not a foolish thing? A number of persons came to me in good faith and asked about it. If they had but given a moment's thought to the question, they would not have bothered. The office of Auditor is an elective one. Now, how could I appoint my brother to it? I believe in Alameda and pinned my faith here with the stakes of the first survey. I love Alameda and I intend to stay here. There is no city like it and an Alameda man will always return to this city no matter where his travels may take him."

MEETINGS BENEFICIAL.

"Now we have all gathered here and there is a nice crowd. The object of this meeting and the others to come is not merely to get you here to listen to us talk politics, as some of you might think. It could be done that Alameda is to have these meetings continued after the new Council goes into office. It would be a great thing to have a meeting of citizens, as this, every little while, where a man might get on the floor and express his views on all public matters. If I am elected I do not desire that your support will stop there, but I hope that every man in this audience will come to me with his ideas. Tell them to me and let us have a good talk over the conditions that exist. If you support me at the election, and then forget I was Mayor, the city would lose all the benefit that can be derived by having a meeting of this kind every little while."

KNOCKERS ABROAD.

"I do not intend to keep you here long. All of this innuendo, that is going around is circulated by a number of knockers. There are men who have come to me and asked that I be appointed to such a position. I have refused them and have made no promises. Some of them are mad, but gentlemen, I am not going to make a promise and when we appoint the officers it will be with your full knowledge and assistance. There is the question that I would like to discuss and I will do so before the campaign is much older. I am a crank on roads and we must have good ones. It is my ambition to place Alameda in the position she so richly deserves, at the head of all California municipalities. With your help on election day and during the two years I am in office, I elected, I shall bend all my energy, ability and efforts to making

MURDERED IN NEVADA

TSONOPAH, Nev., March 15.—News has been received from Blair that Jack Walsh, formerly a railroad conductor, this morning shot and killed Charles Meyers and Jack Harrington. His tragedy was the result of a gambling row. It is alleged that the men who were killed "fired" a roulette wheel in a gambling house two days ago. Walsh, who then was employed by the railroad played the wheel, caught the combination, and won $600. Meyers and Harrington are said to have demanded half of Walsh's winnings, and when he refused to give them the money, are alleged to have beaten him and threatened him with death. Walsh was discharged by the railroad superintendent for gambling. This morning Meyers and Harrington followed him to the depot, when he opened fire with a rifle, killing both of them. He then started for Goldfield to surrender himself.

THINK STRIKE ISN'T POSSIBLE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Local officials of the Southern Pacific company do not believe in the possibility of a strike of their employees. It is pointed out that the men are simply voting on the question of accepting an advance that has been offered by the company, and that, even if they do not decide to accept it, further negotiations will ensue. It was further stated that if no direct agreement could be reached, the differences would be submitted to arbitration. W. S. Palmer, general superintendent, said: "I have had no advice indicating any possibility of a strike. The Western lines have made certain offers of advances, upon which the men are doubtless voting, and which give rise to the report of an impending strike. Should they not accept the offers, it would probably mean further negotiations with considerable delay. The relations between the management and the trainmen are very friendly."

SCHOOLS ARE TO CLOSE FOR VACATION

ALAMEDA, March 15.—Local schools are to close on April 1st for the regular mid-term vacation. The vacation is for two weeks. During one week of the vacation the annual institute of the teachers' association will be held in Oakland.

PLANNING HEADGEAR FOR USE NEXT YEAR

BERKELEY, March 15.—There will be a meeting of the freshman class of the University at 5 o'clock today in room 101 California Hall, for the purpose of deciding upon suitable headgear for the members expressing the opinion to be worn next year. Other important business will also be transacted.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou was one of the last of the cabinet members to leave the White House after the regular meeting today. There were several references during the meeting to the financial situation, but so far as can be ascertained, there were no new developments. The members of the cabinet were present except Secretary McFall, who is out of the city.

Alameda the city to be desired, among a thousand.

PIPES DISTRIBUTED.

During the meeting last night, the pipes that were delayed in transmission were distributed. On each pipe there is the slogan, "Full for new Alameda." The number of pipes distributed among the speakers.

In a letter written to E. K. Taylor, E. J. Holt desired enlightenment on a few points and Mr. Taylor forwarded the following reply, which is similar to the platform on which he desires to be elected:

TAYLOR REPLIES.
"Mr. E. J. Holt, Alameda, California.
"My Dear Sir: Tonight I reserved to prepare a statement of what I will state for and by when Mayor of Alameda. Success is now assured. Tonight I repeated your letter, and, having read it twice over, find that in what it says and implies, it is my platform, and thank you."

"I have no political debts to pay, and have made no promises beyond the assurance that I will appoint no one to office who will be subject to my control. I believe that maintenance of our municipal electric light is for the best interests of our citizens, and it shall never be sold during my term of office. "Particular attention shall be given to better roads connecting us with our neighboring cities, to street improvement; to the preservation and development of our valuable water front; to the support of our public schools; to the guarding of our future through the more careful granting of franchises. At all times I shall consider the City as my best client, and no one shall ever dare accuse me of disloyalty to the sacred obligations which such relationship creates. I have in mind scores of things that can be done for the benefit of our people and enhancement of property values without increase of taxes. The only honor derived from public office springs from achievement. "Very sincerely yours,
"EDWARD K. TAYLOR.
"P.S. May I publish your letter and this?"

TWENTY YOUNG PEOPLE OF BAY CITIES FORM A CLUB

MISS LAURA NORDYKE.

New "500" Organization Will Hold First Meeting at Home of Member in San Francisco.

BERKELEY, March 15.—A "500" club, which will meet on alternate Wednesday evenings has been organized by twenty young people of Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco. The club will be entertained next Wednesday evening by Miss Helen Lillis, at her San Francisco residence. The charter membership of the club follows:

Miss Helen Lillis, Miss Louise Kellogg, Miss Cora and Miss Bess Patton, Miss Florence Hinks, Miss Elizabeth Austin, Miss Gertrude Taylor, Miss Laura Nordyke, Miss Marin Waterhouse, Raymond Bailey, Austin Perry, Clifford Boardman, John Junior Patton, George Senger, Frank Kellogg, Felix Nordyke, Reuben Hunt, Edwin Otis and Roscoe Maples.

COMMITTEES OF TRUSTEES

City Fathers Transact Routine Business and Set Election Date.

BERKELEY, March 15.—The Fire and Water Committee of the Town Trustees, at an adjourned meeting of the board last night, was instructed to purchase several thousand feet of hose for the Fire Department.

The request made by the Board of Education that the citizens of the Ocean View District, north of the town limits, but within the jurisdiction of the town for school purposes, should be given a means whereby they might vote for school directors, was referred to the Town Attorney without being read.

ELECTION CALLED.

A resolution was passed, calling the municipal election on Tuesday, April 8th, and appointing election officers. Superintendent of Streets Turner was instructed to have three watering troughs built and placed in West Berkeley, to take the place of the troughs formerly provided by the town men.

FRAT DANCE TO BE HELD

University Assembly Members to Gather at the Home Club Next Week.

BERKELEY, March 15.—The Uni-

WAITER MADE FORTUNE BY SAVING HIS TIPS

ALAMEDA, March 15.—Joseph Clement, for twenty years a waiter in Marchand's restaurant in San Francisco, who died Wednesday night in Providence Hospital, Oakland, left a fortune of $12,000. Clement was a saving man and he hoarded that all the money he saved was from tips he received. He was also a beneficiary. The will provides for the distribution of the money among the friends of the deceased. He had no relatives in this country. Yesterday the body was brought to this city and the funeral services are being looked after by friends. Clement resided in this city a short time.

WILL BE DINED ABOARD CRUISER

Officers of the Charleston to Act as Hosts to Alamedan Party.

ALAMEDA, March 15.—Miss Marion Hall, Miss Queenie Russell, Emery Elliott and Dalton Harrison, chaperoned by Mrs. H. Johnson, will be dinner guests on board the U. S. cruiser Charleston Sunday. The Charleston is now at Mare Island.

Mrs. Samuel Scott entertained a few friends at her home on Fair Oaks street Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Kruger of Truckee is visiting relatives in this city. Yesterday afternoon she was the guest of Mrs. Leigh Jones at a tea.

Mrs. F. E. Winchester, of Winters, is here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Martinez, of 1525 Oak street.

Mrs. Florence Harrenstein and Miss E. Hall are to spend a portion of the school vacation at San Jose.

C. M. Sadler of Central avenue is expected home from New York on Sunday.

Miss Jeanette Merritt, well known in society circles on this side of the bay, has just returned on a visit for a number of months.

TIRED AND SICK YET MUST WORK

"Man may work from sun to sun but woman's work is never done. In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo and often suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden."

It is to these women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, comes as a blessing. When the spirits are depressed, the head and back aches, there are dragging-down pains, nervousness, sleeplessness, and reluctance to go anywhere, these are only symptoms which unless heeded, are soon followed by the worst forms of Female Complaints.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound keeps the feminine organism in strong and healthy condition. It cures Indigestion, Ulceration, displacements, and organic troubles. In preparing for child-birth and to carry women safely through the Change of Life it is most efficient.

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"For a long time I suffered from female troubles and had all kinds of aches and pains in the lower part of back and sides, I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following the advice which you gave me I feel like a new woman and I cannot praise your medicine too highly."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women
Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience she probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

MRS. AUG. LYON

Some attractive dishes are made with Lard. It's like serving indigestion with a sugar coating

How can you expect digestible food to be made from a product obtained from swine? It isn't reasonable to expect. And yet many people keep on using lard—an enemy of good digestion—through ignorance of something better. It doesn't pay. Your stomach is your best friend, and 'twill be a sorry day for you when it goes back on you.

Cottolene is the product which will set you right. It is the best and purest frying and shortening medium in the world—far superior to lard or cooking butter.

Cottolene is a vegetable, not an animal product.

For your stomach's sake, use Cottolene for cooking. You'll never go back to lard. Cottolene is never sold in bulk—it comes only in sealed white tin pails with a red label and band. In the center of the label is our trade mark—a steer's head in cotton plant wreath.

Take no substitute.

COTTOLENE was granted a GRAND PRIZE (highest possible award) over all other cooking fats at the recent Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and food cooked with COTTOLENE another GRAND PRIZE

"Home Help" a book of 300 choice recipes, edited by Mrs. Rorer, is yours for a 2 cent stamp, if you address The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago.

A NEW FEATURE—The patent air-tight top on this pail is for the purpose of keeping COTTOLENE clean, fresh and wholesome; it also prevents it from absorbing all disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

Nature's Gift from the Sunny South

JUDGE MELVIN WELCOMED HOME BY MEMBERS OF LODGE OF ELKS

Grand Exalted Ruler Makes an Address, as Does Senator Leavitt and Other Members of the Organization.

The home-coming of Judge Henry A. Melvin, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Bonaville and Protective Order of Elks, was celebrated by Oakland Lodge, No. 171, last evening in the characteristically hearty manner of that lodge. Judge Melvin has just returned from his trip around the "great circle," having visited twenty-eight lodges of the order in all sections of the United States, but more particularly having been the guest of honor at the annual banquet given by New York Lodge, No. 1, on the occasion of the anniversary of the formation of the order. When it was announced by Moses P. O'Brien, the secretary to the grand exalted ruler, that Judge Melvin would return from his trip in time to attend the meeting of his home lodge at its regular session last evening, Captain E. M. Freeman and his house committee, were delegated to make some arrangements for his reception. The result of their work was the reception given last evening. The affair might almost be considered impromptu and a hearty welcome from the great body of the lodge, for there was but little time in which to prepare.

No set program was attempted, but Captain Freeman supplied decorations for the rooms, music and a little banquet after the exercises, and the members of the lodge did the rest.

PRINCIPAL EVENT.

The principal event was the presentation to Judge Melvin of a very handsome "cut glass" silver punch set, and a diamond studded Elks' button, and the presentation to Mrs. Melvin of a rosewood chair. But there were other little highlights that furnished pleasure and amusement to the members. Judge Melvin was not the only one to receive gifts. For he brought from Grand Secretary, M. D. O'Brien, secretary to the grand exalted ruler, and the other for Dr. D. Hamilton, past exalted ruler of Oakland Lodge. These gifts were presented by Judge Melvin on behalf of the grand secretary as special tokens to these two leading Elks. Mr. O'Brien is known wherever there are Elks, and his work in connection with the laws and rules of the order have been invaluable, while Dr. Hamilton made himself known as one of the best Elks on the occasion of a trip through the East a short time ago.

SENATOR LEAVITT TALKS.

State Senator Leavitt, who had just returned from the session of the State Legislature in Sacramento and from a very stormy session with Sacramento Lodge of Elks, brought down the lodge, when he was introduced as "Brother Leavitt of Sacramento Lodge, No. 323." Later in the evening Senator Leavitt made a very brief address, in which he referred to the most noted incident that occurred at a recent session of the Sacramento lodge, in which the Sacramento lodge for the Berkeley capital bill was crushed. Speaking of that incident the Senator said:

"There was nothing about that incident that should cause any ill-feeling. Sacramento Lodge has some of the finest men in this State for members. It is one of the best lodges of Elks in the country, and we are all proud of it and its members. What was said was said under the stress of peculiar circumstances and should be forgotten. The members of that lodge were loyal to their city, and properly so. That is all."

The confidence of Oakland Lodge in Senator Leavitt was shown by the hearty applause which met this statement.

Exalted Ruler L. H. Clay occupied the chair and introduced Grand Exalted Ruler Melvin and State Senator G. R. Lukens who, as a member of the committee of appeal of the order is a Grand Lodge officer. Senator Lukens made the presentation speech to Judge Melvin. He told of the work that Judge Melvin had done for the order, and of the high standing of the Oakland Elks among the lodges of the order in the East. In reply Judge Melvin said:

JUDGE MELVIN'S ADDRESS.

"For lack of words to express my feelings I can only say 'Thank you.' This presentation has most deeply affected me, and the kindly remembrance for my dear wife has most deeply touched me. In her behalf I thank you again."

"I presume that a short report of my trip around the great circle will be in order. I have visited twenty-eight lodges on my trip and I found everywhere a spirit of unity and enthusiasm for the order, and a determination to keep out unworthy men and to frown down unworthy acts, and so to bring the Elks up to the very highest standard. I found everywhere the same spirit in the order, and lodges all over the country are building their own homes."

"This is of great benefit for the cultivation of this home spirit keeps us together, and does much to weld us into a great national fraternity. But I could not more than I found that in every section, north, south, east and west, the great work of the Elks was not the advancement of members or the gathering of property and wealth, but the production of the highest type of American manhood."

"I found all through the country the greatest appreciation of the work of the Pacific Coast Elks in those terrible April days of last year. I was given to the order when I spoke of that work, even though it was only to thank the different lodges for their donations to the great cause of humanity. For after all we were only the agents that disbursed these donations for others. And I would like to see the body of men that could or would raise more than a hundred thousand dollars in a few days and pour it into the lap of those who were in need and distress. I found that Oakland Lodge, No. 171, was more than a name for me. In another place I would say, 'I know Oakland Lodge, No. 171, for it was there that they gave me the most hearty welcome and the most hearty handshake.' This is the reputation of

MANY WANT THIS OFFICE

Plenty of Aspirants to Act as Probation Officer Under New Law.

When money was raised by donation and the salary of the probation officer was scarcely $50 a month, and often a wait for your money, no one wanted the honors. Small boys languished in jail each day growing weaker and paler from their confinement and no officer looked after their interests. It was just last week that Dr. Deo, the prosecuting attorney in the Police Court, who formerly was a probation officer but who had taken the position upon taking up his new duties, had several of the boys formally in his custody, arraigned in the Superior Court and their cases disposed of.

ASPIRANTS PLENTY.

Now that a bill is awaiting the signature of Governor Gillett, there are plenty of aspirants for the job of keeping the wayward youths and petty offenders along the straight path. The five Superior Court Judges will have the power of appointing the probation officer, whose salary will be $150 a month while that of the assistant who receives his appointment from the bench, will get $125 a month.

AMONG OTHERS.

Among those who are conspicuous around the courts waiting for the appointment are Edward L. Kirk, a prominent East Oakland politician from the Seventh ward, Attorney George J. McDonough, who has been very active in criminal cases in the Superior Court during the past few months and who was satisfied to take the position before the salary was created; Jack Sherry, formerly a police officer and expert machinist; Principal C. H. Merwin of the Central Evening School, who was a deputy probation officer under Deo; George Sirtvevaat, a former postmaster of Alameda, and Warden James M. Page of the Receiving Hospital, who has been in that institution for the past eight years.

OAKLAND LODGE THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

Judge Melvin spoke of many of the leading Elks that he had met in the East, and told of his reception by New York Lodge at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. In Washington he attended the celebration of the twenty-fifth birthday of that lodge, and in Baltimore he was present at the annual charity day of that lodge.

STOCKTON LODGE.

It was announced that on Sunday next the cornerstone of the new home of Stockton Lodge would be laid in that city. Grand Exalted Ruler Melvin will attend as an escort to Judge Melvin. The train will leave the foot of Broadway at 8:15 on Sunday morning and will return, arriving in Oakland at 7 o'clock. A large body of Oakland Elks will accompany Judge Melvin on this trip.

A BOLD STEP.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has absolutely and completely removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

They are now in a class all by themselves--being absolutely and in every sense Non-secret.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

So many false formulas and malicious statements concerning his medicines had been published through the connivance of jealous competitors and disemployed doctors, that Dr. Pierce determined to completely disarm his assailants by a full and frank statement of their exact composition, verifying the same under oath as complete and correct. This he has done and to the complete discomfiture of those who had assumed his good name as well as the well-earned reputation of his world-famed medicines.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines.

One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this booklet it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents, and that they are made from purely medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, and with the use of specially designed chemical apparatus, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, prolepsis, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health.

SAFE CRACKERS CONFESS AND GET BIG SENTENCES

J. E. WRENELS JOHN B. CONWAY JOHN SMITH

Seven Years in San Quentin Prison in Which to Repent of Their Bad Deeds.

Each of the three safe crackers arrested on suspicion at Woodland recently, pleaded guilty and were sentenced to seven years in San Quentin by Superior Judge H. M. Alberty of Colusa county. It is likely these are the same men who were operating in this county, and fearful of further investigation took this quick route to prison rather than stand trial. The men spent the last night on route to the penitentiary. Sheriff Frank Barnett and Sheriff C. D. Stanton of Colusa, have had a long consultation over the arrest and actions of this trio of confessed yegmen.

They answer the description of the mysterious men who have operated in Alameda county during the past few months. The first safe to be cracked by the trio, was the strong box in the grocery store and postoffice at Centerville last November. Three men had been lurking in that vicinity for a few days previous to the robbery. The next job was on a safe in Hayward, where they obtained more booty.

DARING ROBBERY.
The most daring robbery committed by the mysterious trio, was the cracking of the postoffice safe at Mills Seminary a few weeks ago, where they bound and gagged the watchman. Here they broke open a window and made away with nearly $100. A thorough search was made for the robbers of the girls' school, but none of the suspects were landed.

The names given by the trio to the officers are: J. E. Wrenels, a man weighing 150 pounds, 5 feet 8-10 inches tall, and light complexion; John Smith, weight 155 pounds, 5 feet 11 inches tall and of a dark complexion; John B. Conway, weight 175 pounds, 5 feet and 8-10 inches tall, dark curly hair and auburn mustache.

On February 19th Wrenels and Conway registered under aliases at the hotel in Arbutuck, Smith was in the town at the time, but did not stop with his pals. They shifted to Riverside Hotel at Colusa, where they registered under the names of E. K. Wilson, J. M. Mason and W. E. Lane.

The Marshal and Sheriff had them under cover while in the town and followed them the next day when they took the morning train from Colusa and went south. When the Marshal arrested Conway, the latter reached for his automatic revolver, but the officer had a gun at his stomach before the man could get away.

SPENT MONEY FREELY.
The three crackers were easy man departed with $360 for legal services which were hardly more than an in mark for the attorneys in Colusa. Each vain effort to obtain a writ of habeas corpus. Even their revolvers were sold for about a third of the amount they had paid in purchasing the weapons.

GUN PLAY IN GOLDFIELD ENDS IN MAN'S DEATH

Chief of Police Wilson has received a telegram from Goldfield announcing the death of John P. Sylvia, by a gun-shot wound. The particulars are not stated. The wife of the deceased is supposed to reside in this city.

Cream pitchers made of thin French china. Beautifully decorated in floral designs. They are the regular table size, and come in three shapes or patterns as shown. They are a pitcher which will be a credit to the finest table. Not the cheap ordinary ware, but of refined quality. A pitcher you could not duplicate for less than 35 cents to 50 cents. Like all our special values, unequaled. That is why they are attended by such large crowds. Choice, one to a customer, 15 Cents.

From 5 till 9 p. m., if they last. Positively no Phone orders received.
